YONSEI UNIVERSITY
GRADUATE SCHOOL OF INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

Master of Global Affairs and Policy
International Cooperation (PIC) Program Course List

Courses and their respective fields are subject to change per semester.

Required GSIS Core Courses [to be completed during a student's first semester]
Research Design Methods or Statistics and Data Analysis (select ONE)
Introduction to International Economics
International Relations

Field of Concentrations	Courses Offered
International Security and Foreign Policy	1. International Relations in East Asia 2. Japanese Politics and Foreign Policy 3. American Foreign Policy Since 1945 4. Asia's Rise and the Rest of the World 5. Crisis Management 6. Intelligence and National Security 7. Seminar in Global Security 8. Machiavelli in the 21st Century: Contemporary Issues from History's Master Thinkers 9. A Comparison of Eastern and Western Civilizations (Man and Nature: Taoism vs. Judaism) 10. Rise of the East: Eastern Fundamentals vs. Western Paradigms 11. East and West: Confucianism and Christianity 12. Small States in International Relations 13. Nuclear Issues in Global Affairs 14. International Conflict and Resolution 15. US – China Relations 16. Inter-Korean Relations

	17. Middle Powers and Global Governance: South Korea and Australia in the Asian Century 18. North Korean's Foreign Relations with Major Powers: Issue and Prospect 19. Democracy and Global Justice 20. Maritime Issues in Asia and Implications for US Alliances 21. Reconciliation and Justice in International Politics
International Development Cooperation	1. NGOs and Development 2. Economic Institution and Policy in Korea 3. East Asian Political Economy 4. Political Economy of Korean Development 5. Culture and Globalization 6. ICT and Development 7. Sustainable Development and Energy Policy 8. Sustainable Development and Environment Policy 9. Topics in Sustainable Development 10. Environment, Sustainability and International Cooperation 11. Cultures, Institutions and Development Policy 12. Humanitarian Intervention: Theory and Practice 13. Special Topics in Development Political Economy 14. Gender and Society 15. Fragile States and Development Outcomes
International Law and Organizations	1. UN and International Organizations 2. International Law 3. Race, Gender and Global Migration 4. International Migration in Legal and Institutional Perspective 5. International Organization and Law 6. International Regulatory Agreements and Compliance 7. American Law and Legal System I 8. American Law and Legal System II 9. American Constitutional Law: Civil Liberties and Rights

	10. International Trade Law and Policy 11. International Environmental Law 12. International Political Economy
East Asian Studies	1. Modern Korean-Japanese Relations 2. Japanese Politics and Foreign Policy 3. Seminar in Japanese Economy 4. Political Economy of Japan 5. Understanding Japanese Cultural History: A Comparative Perspective 6. Political Economy of Japan 7. Trade and Finance of Japan 8. Japanese Politics 9. Contemporary Chinese International Relations 10. Chinese Politics 11. China and the Korean Peninsula 12. Economic Development of China 13. Chinese Foreign Policy 14. China's Rise in Historical Perspective 15. Contemporary Issues in East Asia 16. Critical Analysis of Chinese Power Politics 17. Management and Investment in China 18. Theories of International Cooperation and China's Policy 19. Economic Development of China 20. Rise of East Asia: Two Paradigms of International Relations